Way-of-Working

Principles Established: Since we have reached all the checklist items in the first state, the team has moved on to "the foundation established state"

Foundation Established: The team has reached most of the checklist points but there are still some question marks regarding the assignment's specifications (ex we don't know what kind of test cases should be implemented.)

To reach the next state the team should find how to use the tools to evaluate the robustness via accurate tests.